It is our goal to offer excellent service and value to our homeowners and closing agents. Our current process is to assure that estoppels are processed fairly and in the order in which they are received. While the legal requirement for estoppel turn-around time is 10 business days, our standard is to process within 5 business days from the date the request and payment are received.

We receive numerous calls to check the status of requests. If possible, please refrain from contacting our office for updates within the five business day period. If you need to check the status, we recommend sending an email to; custservice@lwrtownhall.com containing the property address.

Should you have additional questions or concerns; email: custservice@lwrtownhall.com.
